

An acquaintance

- you don't share your life with him/her
- you may share things with him/her
- you sometimes don't understand his/her actions
- you see him/her now and then
- you don't know enough about him/her
- you know his/her name
- you may invite him/her to your home

A close friend

- you care about him/her
- you feel safe and comfortable with him/her
- he/she is there to listen about your problems
- he/she stops you from making mistakes
- he/she cares about you
- you can count/rely on him/her

A best friend

- you value him/her above other close friends
- your life is not the same without him/her
- he/she loves you and is interested in you
- you share your life with him/her

Friends and friendship

Character

What is he/she like?

- honest/kind/sociable/confident/full of beans/intelligent/responsible/reliable/hard-working/kind-hearted/trustworthy
- an optimist/a pessimist/often feels happy

Appearance

What does he/she look like?

- eyes/hair/height/weight/fit/unfit
- pretty/beautiful/handsome/ordinary

Things in common

What does he/she like?

- hobbies/activities/food/clothes/etc
- reading/swimming/serfing the Net/jogging/doing judo/painting/hanging out with friends/etc
- apples/ice-cream/pizza/mashed potatoes/chocolate/coffee/tea/fizzy drinks/etc
- jeans/a sweater/a hoodie/a skirt/trainers/high heel shoes/etc

Your relationship

- you get on well/often quarrel/easily make up/offend/easily compromise/avoid conflicts/easy to deal with
- you feel supported/unsupported/safe/unsafe/secure/insecure/comfortable/uncomfortable with him/her
- spend time together/appreciate friendship

What's the secret of your friendship?

- spend time together/appreciate friendship